

Rhiannon/White Witch

(October 1983)

To listen to or download this medley demo I recorded on a cassette boombox in late October 1983, left click on the album cover below (scroll past album cover for the lyrics to White Witch)

The Wild Heart
(Stevie Nicks 1983 album cover)

A White Witch courted me for seven years or better
She fairly won my heart, she wrote me a letter
With her long cape and her broom she looked quite clever
And if I were with my love I would live forever

But where has my love gone with her cheeks like roses
With her stove black witch hat on and her dancing poses

I'm afraid the scorching sun would shine and burn her beauty
And if I were with my love I would do my duty

Strange news is come to town, strange news is carried
Strange news flies up and down that my love has married
Well I wish them both much joy though they can't hear me
And may God reward them well for the slighting of me

And if I were with my love I would live forever

Editor's Note: The music (and some of the lyrics) of this interpretive cover medley is based on two songs—Fleetwood Mac's Rhiannon and Trapezoid's Blacksmith
